Who We Are

The Wolf Run Wildlife and Spiritual Sanctuary, LLC. (WRWSS) is based near Remus, Michigan. WRWSS was started in 2006 as a single event with the idea of bringing people of many faiths together in the spirit of acceptance, understanding and cooperation. Our goal is to establish a sanctuary capable of servicing the needs of people who belong to what are considered to be non-Christian spiritual paths or beliefs by spreading diverse unity among religions. We are continuously endeavoring to work together within the community towards Education, Understanding, Acceptance and Equality for these spiritual paths and to be a positive enduring presence, both locally and globally.

Incorporating in 2009, the organization has grown from offering a single event, to offering several activities year-round, to meet its mission and the needs of the community. Each year Wolf Run is visited by hundreds of people from all over the state during these events.

Volunteers contribute in the planning and carrying out of programs and maintaining the 10 acre farm. Programs include but are not limited to animal rescue, community education, and the Annual Harvest Festival.

WRWSS is a nonprofit organization through the State of Michigan and is Federally recognized as a 501(c)(3) nonprofit public charity. Currently WRWSS is governed by a six-member Board of Directors.

Our Mission

The Mission of the Wolf Run Wildlife and Spiritual Sanctuary shall be the advancement of religion and elimination of prejudice and discrimination based on religious beliefs and to establish a sanctuary for animals, both wild and domestic.
